The fireworks were ignited at the instant, and, in the close box burnt with fury, filling IN STYLE AND NEATNESS the magazine with sulphurous fumes. The quarter gunner, instead of leaving his post, as most men would have done at such a terrible juncture, immediately sat upon the ed by few. open barrel, to keep the sparks from falling into the powder. Without a moment's hesitation he jumped into the perilous place and giving orders to keep up the fight, he passed up powder with one hand and buckets of water down with the other, until the fire was quenched. On entering the magazine and seeing the gunner sitting so quietly on the powder barrel, he thought he was shirking. his duty or bewildered with fear, and asked him sternly what he was doing there. "Ah! sir," said the splendid fellow, "this 'ere shot has stove off the head of the barrel, and if I get up, a little spark might fall in and blow us all to smithereëns in a minute." Courage like this of Captain Chaplain and his quarter gunner has seldom been shown STANDARD MACHINES. in any navy, and their conduct should be noted among the brightest incidents of this war.—Elizabeth City Cor. N. Y. Tribunc.

THE NEW EXPERIENCE IN HARBOR DE-FENCE.—Thus far the comments upon the unparalleled combat between the Merrimac and the frigates Cumberland and Congress, relate chiefly to the demonstration which it affords that the day of sailing vessels of war is incontrovertibly at an end. But does not the fight between the Merrimac No. 2, Standard Shuttle Machine, formerly and the Monitor equally demonstrate that extensive and expensive fortifications for harbor defence are no longer to be, relied on? Will it pay the government to go on with the elaborate works now in progress, when it is certain that two or three moveable and invulnerable batteries upon the principle of the Monitor or the Stevens battery will render vastly more service, and defy any force that can be brought against them? The experience of the 8th and 9th of March in the waters of Hampton Roads has overturned all existing theories and practices in harbor defence, and congress and the executive should accept and utilize that experience without a moment's delay .- Philadelphia Inquirer, MAJOR-GENERAL HITCHCOUK CALLED TO Washington.—Gen. E. A. Hitchcock, who recently declined the appointment of major general of volunteers, was summoned here from St. Louis a few days ago, when he was visited by Mr. Stanton the secretary of war. What transpired at the interview has not been announced; but it was of sufficient importance to the interests of the country to induce Gen. Hitchcock to reconsider his declination of the unior-generalship. Waiving all considerations of a persound unture, he consented to accept the appointment. After this he left for New York, but was almost immediately ordered to report to the president. He arrived on Friday, and will now have his permanent had nearly deprived the country of one of its oldest and ablest military commanders, yet it is now a source of satisfaction to chine almost useless. know that the president and Secretary Stanton have near them one whose military judgment cannot but be of the greatest possible advantage at this time.

his command,) than upon Rev. Mr. Lozier, who first exposed him.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?-The traitor John Bell, who fled from Nashville on the approach of our troops, recived, last week, a polite request from Gen. Buell to return with an assurance that he had nothing to fear. With just as much reason might the same assurance be offered to Breckinridge, or Jeff. Davis, or Floyd. Is this the way to nut down rebellion-saying to all the world that the leaders in it have committed no crime?

Attorney General Bates has decided that disabled soldiers enlisted for three years, or l during the war, are entitled to invalid pensions, under the net of July 22, 1861, and that disabled men of the three months' volunteers, under the President's proclamation of April 15, 1861, are entitled to pensions, under the acts of 1802 and 1816.— Also, that there is no law providing for pensions to the widows and orphans of sol diers who fall in the present war.

THE MAN WHO SAT GPON THE POWDER. During the engagement the gunbout Valley Best Jobbing Offices Ourning the engagement the gumbont Valley City was fighting two rebel boars at once, weeking her gans on both sides, when a shell entered her port bow, passed into her magazine, knocked the local off a half-barrel of powder, and exploded in a locker which was filled with blue-lights, rockets, and Boston signal lights.

The frameworks were invited at the instant.

The fireworks were ignited at the instant, and, in the close box burnt with fury, filling the magazine with sulphurous fumes. The quarter gunner, instead of leaving his post, as most men would have done at such a taste and a terrible juncture, immediately sat upon the open barrel, to keep the sparks from falling into the powder. Captain J. C. Chaplain, commodore of the vessel, called all hands to fire quarters, but seeing that this would take too many from the guns he would go into the magazine himself and extinguish the fire. Without a moment's hesitation he in the fullest confidence that they will be jumped into the perilous place and giving orders to keep up the fight, he passed up powder with one hand and buckets of water down with the other, until the fire was quenched. On entering the magazine and seeing the ganner sitting so quietly on the powder barrel, he thought he was shirking his duty or bewildered with fear, and asked him sternly what he was doing there. "Ah! sir," said the splendid fellow, "this ere shot has stove off the head of the barrel, and if I get up, a little spark; might fall in and blow us all to smithereens in a minute." Courage like this of Captain Chaplain and his quarter gunner has seidom been shown in any navy, and their conduct should be noted among the brightest incidents of this war.—Elizabeth City Cov. N. Y. Tribune.

THE NEW EXPERIENCE IN HARBOR DE-FENCE.—Thus far the comments upon the unparalleled combat between the Merrimuc and the frigates Cumberland and Congress, relate chiefly to the demonstration which it affords that the day of sailing vessels of war is incontrovertibly at an end. But does not the fight between the Merrimac does not the fight between the Merrimac and the Monitor equally demonstrate that extensive and expensive Jortifications for harbor defence are no longer to be relied on? Will it pay the government to go on with the elaborate works now in progress, when it is certain that two or three moveable and involnerable batteries upon the principle of the Monitor or the Stevens battery will render vastly more service, and defy any force that can be brought against them? The experience of the 8th and 9th of March in the waters of Hampton Roads has overturned all existing theories and practices in turned all existing theories and practices in harbor defence, and congress and the executive should accept and utilize that experience without a moment's delay .- Philad. phia Inquirer.

MAJOR-GENERAL HITCHCOCK CALLED TO WASHINGTON,-Gen. E. A. Hitchcock, who recently declined the appointment of major general of volunteers, was summoned here from St. Louis a few days ago, when he was visited by Mr. Stanton the secretary of war. What transpired at the interview has not been announced; but it was of sufficient importance to the interests of the country to induce Gen. Hitchcock to reconsider his declination of the unifor-general-ship. Waiving all considerations of a per-sonal nature, he consented to accept the appointment. After this be left for New York, but was almost immediately ordered to report to the president. He arrived on Friday, and will now have his permanent bittee, and will now have his permanent place here. Though Secretary Camerou had nearly deprived the country of one of its oldest and ablest military commanders, yet it is now a source of satisfaction to know that the president and Secretary Stanton have near them one whose military Stanton have near them one and the great st possible advantage at this time.

A RIGHTEUUS PENALTY FOR HIS SACRI-LEGE. - The day of the engagement at Hampton Roads, when the Congress struck her flag a rebel middy jumped on board the Congress and took the fiag, which he wound around his body Union down, but one of the Fire Zonaves, named Billy Welch, fired his rifle, and made the accursed rebel pay the forfeit of his life for his rashness. The body of the rebel middy fell overboard, and was not recovered. The stars and stripes which the reber boy wound around him served as his shroud; and his death will serve as a lesson to all traitors and sacrilegeous outrages of a pure and holy flag. The Fire Zouaves lined the shore of Newport News, and did great execution in picking off rebels in the act of boarding the Rev. John H. Lozier, chaplain of the 37th Indiana regiment, who wrote to the Cincinnati Commercial the account of Col. Haz-zard's brutality, (which we copied at the time,) has been court-martialed and suspended from duty for six months. The court found that the chaplain told the truth, and say that his offence was simply the misconduct of arraigning a superior officer before an improper and incompetent tribunal. The finding thus bears more hardly upon Col. Hazzard, (who has been removed from his command,) than upon Rev. Mr. Lozier, who first exposed him.

WHAT DOES THIS MEAN?-The traitor John Bell, who fled from Nashville on the approach of our troops, recived, last week, a polite request from Gen. Buell to return, fear. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in initiation of ours. The metal in them, from the iron casting to the smalless piece, is of poor quality. Their makers have not the means to do their work well. They are hid away in secret places, where it would be impossible to have at their command the propor machiness, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed muchines, Hadly Made, more always liable to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: creaming of correct action at altrates of speed, simplicity of construction, gived durability and rapidity of operation, ucit, the least labor. Machines to combine these escential qualities, must be made of the best heat and farties, and means, on a grand scale, to de this.

Its trustees are well known, honorable business men, and are as capable of managing an institution of this kind, as men in any other portion of the United States. The experience of the company thus far proves that we can have as reliable compaules in the west as any where else, if we will, and self-interest certainly indicates that we should have them, and build up home interests in every practicable way. In the above respects, this company claims equality with its co-workers, and in the following superiority: It obtains the greater portion of its business in the healthiest portion of the United States, thus having the advantage of a less per centage of loss; it receives higher rates of interest on its investments, thus making more rapid accumulationsboth very important items in Life Insurance; and its expenses have been less in proportion to its business than any other new company

Tuesday Evening, March 35, 1862. Official Paper of the City.

Where breathes the foe but falls before us? With Freedom's soil beneath our feet, And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

From Tennessee.

The appeal of Andrew Johnson to the people of Tennessee has been published. He contrasts the happy and prosperous condition of the state, herore the reign of secession, with the present. He declares that "the state government of Tennessee has disappeared." "The executive has abdicated; the legislature has dissolved; the judiciary is in abeyance." On account of this state of things, and because the goverament of the United States is bound by the constitution to guarantee to every state a republican form of government, he " has been appointed, in the absence of the regular state authority, as Military Governor, for the time being, to preserve the public property of the state, to give the protection ernment to the same condition as before the existing rebellion."

That anarchy may not prevail, he proposes to appoint state and county officers, temporarity, until their places can be filled by the action of the people.

Gov. Johnson further declares:

While it muy become necessary, in vindicating the violated majesty of the law, and in re-asserting its imperial sway, to punish intelligent and conscious treason in high places, no merely retaliatory or vindictive policy will be adopted. To those especies cially who in a private, unofficial capacity have assumed an attitude of hostility to the government, a full and complete amnesty for all past acts and declarations is offered, upon the one condition of their again yield ing themselves peaceful citizens to the just supremacy of the laws. This I advise them to do for their own good, and for the peace and welfare of our beloved state, endeared to me by the associations of long and active years, and by the enjoyment of her highest honors.

This address of Gov, Johnson is interest ing because it shows how the President intends to resuscitate a dead state-"a govecument which has disappeared," by the act of a rebellious people.

appointment of a military governor of a state, has any constitutional warrant, except | eil may prescribe; under the war power, which has no limit.

We should have preferred to have had congress, under the power to govern territories, institute a civil government, to be sapported if need be, by the military power. The state organization having disappeared, nothing is left but the territory and his political rights by the commission of a crime, although he is yet amenable to the

How to get a people out of this condition is the question. It may, perhaps, be done entirely by military power, without consulting the constitution; or it may be accomplished by constitutional means; we prefer the civil power always, if it is sufficient, than to an appeal to the war power, which is a despotism.

The President has chosen the latter. He may be right. It is probable that our congress is too cowardly to take any responsitility in the matter, and if it declines to act, it is the duty of the President to act, as he has done.

There may be some doubt whether Gov. Johnson has the power to grant an amnesty for all acts, which he assumes to do .--When the courts of the United States again resume their sessions in Tennessee, i may be presumed they will punish trailing, without much reference to the promi as of a military officer, whose authority is temporary, and exists only from necessity.

The address of Gov. Johnson is concilistory in spirit, and if the rebels are to be subdued in this way, we think it cannot fail of having a soothing effect upon them, and may induce them to forbear in their lawless acts of hostility against the government and their outrages upon Union men and women, of whom Gov. Johnson and family are conspicuous victims.

Earl Russell replied to the proofs adduced by Lord Campbell, of the inefliciency of the blockade, and recounted the efforts made by the north to render it effect ive. He, Russell, considered that the want of cotton, on English markets, was the best test that the blockade was not an emp ty one. He said, a renewal of good feel ing between the northern and southern states was impossible. He said the north would consent to peaceful separation of the states. Both the north and the south were rich and expable of being mighty powers. He trusted that within three months or so the war would cease, leaving the emancipa tion of slaves, if possible, to be effected by gradual and peaceful means. He said no formal communication had been made by the French to the English government, or the inefficiency of the blockade. The motion was then withdrawn.

The News.

We have intelligence from Gen. Burnside that his troops have occupied Washington, N. C. This place is situated at the month of Tar river, which empties into Pamlico Sound.

The Journal of Commerce, Sanday Mercury and Boston Journal, have been suppressed, and the editors arrested and taken to Washington to be tried by court martial for publishing news of the contemplated movements of the army, contrary to the articles of war. If the secretary of war will enforce this regulation upon all alike who give information to the enemy, there will be no complaint from editors.

The western gunboats are to be constructed so as to draw only four feet of water. They will be capital for hunting out rebels from the bayous and lagoons of the lower Mississinni.

The battle at Winchester was more severe than at first reported. Our loss was from 80 to 100 killed and 200 woundedthe enemy's 500 killed and wounded, and 300 prisoners. This is the only high land, the strip being from five to eleven miles in width, and only five miles across from the head of the island to Tiptonville, which is 26 miles by water. Gan. Pope has planted a battery two miles below Riddle's Point, on the Missouri shore, below Point Pleaant. This gives the federal troops command of the river, down to the overflowen lands on the Tennessee side, and completely cuts off the retreat of the rabel truops from island No. 10.

An arrival from Hatteras reports that the rebel steamer Nashville was captured by our blockading fleet. It was heretofore reported to be burnt at Beaufort.

Gen. Banks is marching on Strasburgh, above Winebester, and has probably taken that place before this time.

Five hundred and fifty troops from Colorado territory, are making forced marches to the relief of Col. Cauby. Another battle is expected with the Texan invaders.

I wish to get at the facts, and earn what experiments have been made, by whom, and with what success in this vicinity, and in other parts of the state.

Self-interest, as well as patriotism, demands that we shall produce our aweetenings as well as our bread. And at the price all kinds of sweetenings are likely to sell at for years to come, it will be the most profitable crop that can be raised. In Illi-The Republican Electors of the city of Janesville 110is, as well as most other western states, will meet in Convention, by delegates, to nominate much attention has of late been devoted to this subject, and their afforts have been rowned with success.

In Iowa, during the year 1860, there was produced 1,167,348 gallons sorghum syrup, and in 1861 double the amount was made. Over $1,000,000 was saved to that state by their productions of Sorghum and Imphee sugar and syrup during that year.

I have opened correspondence with gentlemen in Illinois and Ohio; men who have been devoting time and money in raising and crushing the canes, changing the juice into syrup and the syrup into sugar, for the purpose of getting the latest and most reliable information that can be obtained on he subject.

Such information as I can obtain that promises to be reliable and of value to our latitude, I wish to present to our people through the columns of your paper.

That an excellent article of Sorghum syrup can be made from the juice, can be proved by calling at F. S. Eldred's stere and trying it.

There is a prospect that there may be a market in Chicago for all the spare syrup that can be made. Efforts will be made to obtain the best kind of seed suitable for our climate, and before the time of need comes, information will be obtained as to the best kind of machinery that is in use for expressing the juice and changing it into syrup or sugar.

If all those who have been producing their sweetening for the past two or three years would write me, giving me their experience and results; where anything of value is received I would condense it as much as possible, and spread the facts out before the people.

There is a necessaity for our farmers to raise something else besides wheat and pork, if taxes and expenses are to be paid, and times good. Let me hear from all. J. S. CHAPIN.

FIRST RATE.—The Continental Vocalists in the beautiful costume of " ye olden time," propose giving their second and last coneert at Wallace Hall, next Weilnesday evening, March 19th, with change of programme. Their entertainment Thursday evening was among the very best we ever had. The blending of their voices is of the very best. Mr. Lewis handles the violin with artistic skill. His perfect imitation of the singing of the canary bird and performing four parts in "Pleyels Hymn," is what we only get when attending dollar concerts. Mr. Snyder's rich voice displayed compass and power, together with a high state of cultivation, seldom acquired, also, in his 'Laughing man" he "can't be beat." Mr. Watson has a pure contrabasso of great power, which he uses with fine effect. Everybody present was delighted last night, and next Wednesday evening, we may expect to see everybody turn out to hear the best concert company traveling. - Sterling Republican, March 14th,

The Continental Vocalists will give a concert in this city on the evening of the 31st

H. C. Ball, Esq., formerly a resident of this city, was in the battle at Pea Ridge as captain of company C, 9to Iowa. He was slightly wounded in the leg.

New Music .- New and popular music just received - Gen. Grant's March, dedi cated to the brave men who captured Fort Donelson; soug entitled Beautiful Rose; and a superb waltz called Birds of the Forest. We have many other pieces which we are confident will please every one who will call at Wilson's music store. mar25d1d.

LEGISLATIVE MANUAL .- We are indebted to J. G. Alden, Assistant Sergeant at Arms of the assembly, for a copy of the Legislative Manual for 1862, published at the expense of the state. It is a very useful and convenient work.

An attempt has been made to nomnate city officers at Madison by means of a People's Convention. The meeting, however, was so inharmonious as to fait in the oliject sought.

DISAPPOINTED OF HIS PREY .-- A man came to Charleston, Missouri, a day or two since, with an order purporting to come from Gen. Strong, for the arrest of certain negroes whom he alleged to be his property. He arrested a woman and five children, and was about to leave by the railroad, when an officer, doubting the authenticity of the document, detained him until word could be sent to Gen. Strong. It was found that the order was a forgery, and orders were issued for his arrest. It was sup-

GUNS AND AMMUNITION FOR THE MISSIS. stret. - Five car loads of manitions of war, consisting of eight Dahlgren guns, weigh ing 3,500 lbs each, gun carriages; shells and ammunition to match, consigned to Dry Goods at Cost! Flag Officer Foote, Cairo, were dispatched from New York on Tuesday last, in charge of the American Express Company, and passed through this city on Thursday eye ning. They will in all probability reach the consignee in time to be used in the reduc-tion of Island No. 10. This looks as though the government had taken a leaf out o Fremont's book, and indicates a degree of lively promptitude that the people will not dislike to see, especially as it is developed by the navy department.—Cincinnati Com-

THE REBEL FORCES IN VIRGINIA.-There is a remarkable similarity between Gor donsville Junction and Manassas Junction as defensive positions. In front of the lat-ter is Bull Run, in front of the former is the Rapidan river. The banks of the latter are of the same formation as those of First Day of April West. DRY GOODS the Rapidan river. Between the Rapidan river and Gordons ville the surface of the country is billy, the hills being quite as available for fortifications as those in front of Manassas. It is covered with dense forests, too, in many places, which will impede military operations to a great extent. THIR want of an authentic and thorough History of CEPHALIC PILLS, rill? want of an authentic and thorough litstory of the liebel lon, for present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mazes of the ramors, reports, dispatches, letters and ditorials of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confused columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher nent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the listory as above set forth—in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the STORY AS IT IS, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire inovement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable speeches. It will not be a merediary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naited dates, nor a compliation of alips from newspapers, but will portray in connected and interesting farrative, there continuary it controlled that the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and correct so far as possible the errors and discrepancies incident to a basty narratives of the newsbabott. It will be written in a ctyle suited to its theme—at once graphic, earnest and luminous, introducing such personal and accial incidents as may serve to show the relations of individuals and communities to the grand svents or the time.

It is true, everybody to ale the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the frequentary and controlledry children of the moment, and not a correct,
